

Workshops @ FC Library

Fall 2009

Here's what students have said about the workshops @ FC Library...

"Explained everything I need to start my research! Lots of help!"

"It was very informative. I'll be back for any other workshops you have."

"...Taking this class has made me more aware of the sources I intend to use in the future..."

"Good teacher. I really enjoyed the time I spent in here today."

"Very informational, quick and easy to learn."

Workshop Topic	Date	Time
Explore FC Library Take a virtual tour of FC Library services and resources. Open to students and staff.	Tuesday 9/08	1 PM
	Wednesday 9/09	12 NOON
	Thursday 9/10	6 PM
Research @ FC Library Learn how to search for and access information using the library catalog and subscription databases.	Monday 10/5	12 noon
	Tuesday 10/6	6 pm
	Wednesday 10/7	7 pm
	Thursday 10/8	12 noon
Internet Research Don't settle for "good enough." Learn to search the web effectively to find what you need.	Monday 10/5	7 pm
	Tuesday 10/6	11 am
	Wednesday 10/7	11 am
	Thursday 10/8	6 pm
Evaluating Websites When you need information, do you just "Google it?" Learn how to critically evaluate the sources you find on the Web.	Monday 10/12	6 pm
	Tuesday 10/13	11 am
	Wednesday 10/14	1 pm
	Thursday 10/15	6 pm
Works Cited w/ MLA Practice citing various sources using the MLA format (7 th edition). Includes introduction to NoodleBib.	Monday 10/12	1 pm
	Tuesday 10/13	6 pm
	Wednesday 10/14	7 pm
	Thursday 10/15	1 pm

Each 50-minute session includes a hands-on exercise. No sign-up necessary.

Students may attend one or more sessions, but there are no make-ups.

Workshops held in room 827 (Library, 2nd Floor)